

THE NEWS SUMMARY.

Forecast for Virginia: Fair, followed by light rains. For North Carolina: Local rains, cooler.

A large Democratic meeting was held at the Theatre last night, and Colonel W. C. Pitts, Jr., presided. The meeting was held at the Theatre last night, and Colonel W. C. Pitts, Jr., presided. The meeting was held at the Theatre last night, and Colonel W. C. Pitts, Jr., presided.

THROUGHOUT VIRGINIA.

LATEST REPORTS FROM OVER THE COMMONWEALTH.

New Electric Car Line for Lynchburg.

Gas and Heat-Producing Plant in Danville—Political, General, and Personal News From the State at Large.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—All of the city fathers, with one exception, have returned to the pastoral charges in this city and are at their homes. The people of the city are rejoicing at the return of their pastors. The people of the city are rejoicing at the return of their pastors.

NEW TREASURY NOTES.

DEMANDS MADE FOR THEIR REDEMPTION IN GOLD.

The River and Harbor Bill Goes to the President—The Tariff Bill to Go Into Effect October 1st—Yesterday's Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Complaint has been made to the Secretary of the Treasury that the new Treasury notes issued under the act of July 14, 1890, by presenting them at the Treasury for redemption in gold and that more than 80 per cent of the new notes have been so redeemed. Acting Treasurer Whipple said to your correspondent today that the records of his office showed that the total issue of these notes up to September 8th was $1,000,000 in hundred dollar notes, and $2,000,000 in thousand dollar notes, or a total of $3,000,000. Of these there were $1,500,000 in the New York sub-treasuries for current use, and the balance, $1,500,000, were in circulation.

FREDERICKSBURG.

Elloquent Speech of Mr. W. A. Jones in the Senate.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Today was a holiday for the people of this city. A large number of the school-children were out to hear Hon. Wm. A. Jones, the Democratic candidate for Congress. He was introduced to a large audience by Hon. J. M. Hudgin in most complimentary terms. The people were greeted with enthusiastic applause. He discussed the issues in this country in a clear and lucid manner, and won the approval of his hearers. His speech was highly complimentary. An old and intelligent citizen remarked that he had never heard a man speak so well. The people were delighted, and speak in the highest terms of Mr. Jones, and seem to be very earnest in their desire to have him elected.

ALEXANDRIA.

Arrest of a Chicken-Thief—Death of an Estimable Lady—A Double Drowning.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Criminals, the negro chicken-thief and incendiary who is charged with having burned Captain Point Beattie's barn in Fairfax, Va., and who is now in jail in Washington, was arrested in Georgetown last night. He was found in the act of burning a barn. He was arrested in Georgetown last night. He was found in the act of burning a barn.

DANVILLE.

Improving the Mail Service—Trotting Races—Proposed New Gas Plant, Etc.

DANVILLE, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Captain Harry Wooding, president of the Chamber of Commerce, has appointed a committee of five to confer with the public, and submit to the Postoffice Department such suggestions as they may deem proper for improving the mail service. This has been done upon a suggestion from the department.

WYTHEVILLE.

Hon. John A. Buchanan Opens His Campaign in Wythe.

WYTHEVILLE, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Hon. John A. Buchanan, who was unanimously nominated by the Democratic convention of this district to be his own successor in Congress, opened the political campaign here last night. He made a speech, he was listened to by a large and appreciative audience. Much surprise is expressed at such a late hour in the campaign. He is expected to be a successful candidate.

WILLIAMSBURG.

Grand Jury in Session—Reorganization of the Democratic Party.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—The regular grand jury term of our County Court began here this morning. Judge C. C. Brown presided. The grand jury will sit until the 15th inst. The grand jury will sit until the 15th inst.

STATION.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded—Funeral of Mr. Crogan.

STATION, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Yesterday William Adams, a colored boy, who works at Eschenbach's barber shop, was shot by Allen Washington, a white man, who was with him. The boy was killed. The boy was killed.

BASE-BALL.

Results of the Various Games Played Yesterday.

National League.—At Philadelphia: Philadelphia, 4; Brooklyn, 3. At Chicago: Chicago, 7; Pittsburgh, 3. At New York: New York, 6; Boston, 0. Called at end of eleventh inning, darkness. Cincinnati, 1; Cleveland, 0. No game, rain. Players' League.—At Boston: Boston, 18; New York, 6. At Pittsburgh: Pittsburgh, 6; Cleveland, 4. At Buffalo: Buffalo, 5; Chicago, 9. Called at end of eighth inning, darkness. At Brooklyn: Brooklyn, 7; Philadelphia, 5. American Association.—At Philadelphia: Athletics, 1; St. Louis, 0. At Syracuse: Columbus, game called at fourth inning, rain. At Rochester: Rochester, 1; St. Louis, 0. At Baltimore: Baltimore, 3; Louisville, 1. The Farmers' Alliance of Brunswick county had a grand picnic at Tucker's store, in that county, on Saturday. There were about five hundred persons in attendance from the surrounding country. An address was made by Mr. George Blick, superintendent of the county public schools. There are no changes in the peanut market today.

PETERSBURG.

Death of Mrs. Dr. Fiecas—Sales by the Merchants Tobacco Company.

PETERSBURG, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—The Krick, Bates, and Maloca cotton factories resumed operations again this morning on full scale of bright tobacco of the Merchants Tobacco Company of Petersburg, of which Mr. T. P. Williams is the manager. Mr. Williams is the manager. Mr. Williams is the manager.

ROANOKE.

Cardinal Manning has written a letter to the Emperor in Belgium.

Cardinal Manning has written a letter to the Emperor in Belgium. The Emperor has contributed nearly $100,000 for the Austrian food supplies. The Emperor has contributed nearly $100,000 for the Austrian food supplies.

NEW TREASURY NOTES.

DEMANDS MADE FOR THEIR REDEMPTION IN GOLD.

The River and Harbor Bill Goes to the President—The Tariff Bill to Go Into Effect October 1st—Yesterday's Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Complaint has been made to the Secretary of the Treasury that the new Treasury notes issued under the act of July 14, 1890, by presenting them at the Treasury for redemption in gold and that more than 80 per cent of the new notes have been so redeemed. Acting Treasurer Whipple said to your correspondent today that the records of his office showed that the total issue of these notes up to September 8th was $1,000,000 in hundred dollar notes, and $2,000,000 in thousand dollar notes, or a total of $3,000,000. Of these there were $1,500,000 in the New York sub-treasuries for current use, and the balance, $1,500,000, were in circulation.

FREDERICKSBURG.

Elloquent Speech of Mr. W. A. Jones in the Senate.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Today was a holiday for the people of this city. A large number of the school-children were out to hear Hon. Wm. A. Jones, the Democratic candidate for Congress. He was introduced to a large audience by Hon. J. M. Hudgin in most complimentary terms. The people were greeted with enthusiastic applause. He discussed the issues in this country in a clear and lucid manner, and won the approval of his hearers. His speech was highly complimentary. An old and intelligent citizen remarked that he had never heard a man speak so well. The people were delighted, and speak in the highest terms of Mr. Jones, and seem to be very earnest in their desire to have him elected.

ALEXANDRIA.

Arrest of a Chicken-Thief—Death of an Estimable Lady—A Double Drowning.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Criminals, the negro chicken-thief and incendiary who is charged with having burned Captain Point Beattie's barn in Fairfax, Va., and who is now in jail in Washington, was arrested in Georgetown last night. He was found in the act of burning a barn. He was arrested in Georgetown last night. He was found in the act of burning a barn.

DANVILLE.

Improving the Mail Service—Trotting Races—Proposed New Gas Plant, Etc.

DANVILLE, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Captain Harry Wooding, president of the Chamber of Commerce, has appointed a committee of five to confer with the public, and submit to the Postoffice Department such suggestions as they may deem proper for improving the mail service. This has been done upon a suggestion from the department.

WYTHEVILLE.

Hon. John A. Buchanan Opens His Campaign in Wythe.

WYTHEVILLE, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Hon. John A. Buchanan, who was unanimously nominated by the Democratic convention of this district to be his own successor in Congress, opened the political campaign here last night. He made a speech, he was listened to by a large and appreciative audience. Much surprise is expressed at such a late hour in the campaign. He is expected to be a successful candidate.

WILLIAMSBURG.

Grand Jury in Session—Reorganization of the Democratic Party.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—The regular grand jury term of our County Court began here this morning. Judge C. C. Brown presided. The grand jury will sit until the 15th inst. The grand jury will sit until the 15th inst.

STATION.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded—Funeral of Mr. Crogan.

STATION, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—Yesterday William Adams, a colored boy, who works at Eschenbach's barber shop, was shot by Allen Washington, a white man, who was with him. The boy was killed. The boy was killed.

BASE-BALL.

Results of the Various Games Played Yesterday.

National League.—At Philadelphia: Philadelphia, 4; Brooklyn, 3. At Chicago: Chicago, 7; Pittsburgh, 3. At New York: New York, 6; Boston, 0. Called at end of eleventh inning, darkness. Cincinnati, 1; Cleveland, 0. No game, rain. Players' League.—At Boston: Boston, 18; New York, 6. At Pittsburgh: Pittsburgh, 6; Cleveland, 4. At Buffalo: Buffalo, 5; Chicago, 9. Called at end of eighth inning, darkness. At Brooklyn: Brooklyn, 7; Philadelphia, 5. American Association.—At Philadelphia: Athletics, 1; St. Louis, 0. At Syracuse: Columbus, game called at fourth inning, rain. At Rochester: Rochester, 1; St. Louis, 0. At Baltimore: Baltimore, 3; Louisville, 1. The Farmers' Alliance of Brunswick county had a grand picnic at Tucker's store, in that county, on Saturday. There were about five hundred persons in attendance from the surrounding country. An address was made by Mr. George Blick, superintendent of the county public schools. There are no changes in the peanut market today.

PETERSBURG.

Death of Mrs. Dr. Fiecas—Sales by the Merchants Tobacco Company.

PETERSBURG, Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—The Krick, Bates, and Maloca cotton factories resumed operations again this morning on full scale of bright tobacco of the Merchants Tobacco Company of Petersburg, of which Mr. T. P. Williams is the manager. Mr. Williams is the manager. Mr. Williams is the manager.

ROANOKE.

Cardinal Manning has written a letter to the Emperor in Belgium.

Cardinal Manning has written a letter to the Emperor in Belgium. The Emperor has contributed nearly $100,000 for the Austrian food supplies. The Emperor has contributed nearly $100,000 for the Austrian food supplies.

TOPICS FROM NEW YORK.

BEGINNING OF THE PEOPLE'S MUNICIPAL CAMPAIGN.

An Irish Candidate Becomes a Jew for Love—A Wealthy English Smuggler—Sole of a Well-Known Cigar Manufacturer—Gotham Gossip.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES.

The campaign of the People's Municipal League was in earnest this morning. The preliminary canvass by election districts, it is estimated, will cost about $30,000. The canvass, so far as practicable, is to be a personal one of every voter in the city, and it is intended it shall be more elaborate and more thorough than any canvass that has ever been made in New York.

BECAME A JEW FOR LOVE.

James Kennedy, an Irish Catholic, employed by Douglas and Pettkin, liquor dealers, of the corner of Broadway and Broadway, was married last evening to a Jewish girl, Mrs. Isaac, the mother of the bride. Kennedy became a Jew, he had at last consented to renounce his faith, and was received into the Hebrew synagogue, the ceremony being performed by the Rabbi of Temple Beth El.

A WEALTHY SMUGGLER.

W. H. Melhuus, a wealthy young Englishman, who some time ago received a letter from his father, a rich uncle who had died in Australia, and who came to "do" America, was a passenger on the ship "Hesperus," which arrived yesterday from Liverpool. He brought his horses, ponies, dog-cart, phaeton, etc., with him, and he is expected to spend some time in the city. He is expected to spend some time in the city.

SUICIDE OF A CIGAR MERCHANT.

Louis F. Fromer, the well-known and reputed wealthy cigar merchant, committed suicide last night. He was found in his room, with a knife in his back. He was found in his room, with a knife in his back.

THE NEW BELL TOWER.

Tomorrow the citizens of the village of Far Rockaway, Long Island, will have the honor of seeing the new bell tower in this State under the new bell tower. They will see the new bell tower, and will see the new bell tower.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES.

In the sporting circles, it is rumored that August Belmont and the Lorrains are looking for a horse to race during the season. It is rumored that August Belmont and the Lorrains are looking for a horse to race during the season.

SALVATION ARMY CONGRESS.

The Salvation Army is to hold a "great Eastern congress" of the "Rockies and the Atlantic," in this city and Brooklyn, for one week, beginning on November 1st. It is expected that the congress will be a very successful one.

A GOLDEN JUBILEE.

The arrangements for the celebration of Bishop Loughlin's golden jubilee in Brooklyn, N. Y., were held here this morning. The arrangements for the celebration of Bishop Loughlin's golden jubilee in Brooklyn, N. Y., were held here this morning.

THE O'REILLY MEMORIAL.

The memorial meeting in honor of the late John Boyle O'Reilly was held this evening at the Metropolitan Opera House. The memorial meeting in honor of the late John Boyle O'Reilly was held this evening at the Metropolitan Opera House.

BRECKINRIDGE'S SUCCESSOR.

Special Election Called to Fill the Vacancy. Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 8.—Governor Eagle will issue a proclamation in a day or so, calling a special election in the Second Arkansas Congressional district, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. B. H. Breckinridge. The date of the special election will be November 4th, the time fixed for the regular elections in all the Congressional districts.

CAPITAL NOTES.

The plan for the reorganization of the Shenandoah Valley, which has been authorized by Congress, is being carried out. The plan for the reorganization of the Shenandoah Valley, which has been authorized by Congress, is being carried out.

ALLEGED TRAIN WRECKER.

Kept in Close Confinement at the New York Central Depot. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Reed, the alleged train wrecker, arrested at Hudson, is still kept in close confinement at the Central railroad depot in this city. Nobody is allowed to talk to him, and his family are not permitted to see him.

DUTCH TAKE HOLLAND.

AND MAINE, AS USUAL, STICKS TO HER RADICAL IDOLS.

General Apathy Throughout the State by Both Parties—Returns Somewhat Meagre, But Reed's Election Claimed by an Increased Plurality.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 8.—The election is passing off very quietly here. There is a good deal of scratching, and a smaller vote than usual is being polled.

THE MOZART MUSICAL.

The Schubert Male Quartette of Boston has been the attraction at the Mozart musical. The Schubert Male Quartette of Boston has been the attraction at the Mozart musical.

GERMAN-DAY CELEBRATION.

Arrangements to be Made for a Big Volks-Fest.

The first Germans who came to America landed on the 10th of October, 1683, at Germantown, Pa. For several years past efforts have been made to commemorate this event.

REPUBLICANS GAIN REVERIES.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 8.—Thirty towns give Burleigh 5,290; Thompson, 5,772; Clark, 204; scattering, 275. In 1888 Burleigh gave Burleigh 5,290; Thompson, 5,772; Clark, 204; scattering, 275.

STOCK WITH A HATCHET.

Mr. Richard Fox, of the firm of Fox & Rider, elevator merchants, No. 143 East Main street, was arrested yesterday, charged with striking Mr. J. M. Granger with a hatchet. Mr. Fox was arrested yesterday, charged with striking Mr. J. M. Granger with a hatchet.

THE THEATRE.

Mr. McNeill appears at the Theatre. Mr. McNeill appears at the Theatre.

TRAIN WRECKERS AT WORK.

More Obstructions Placed on the New York Central Track.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 8.—The six o'clock train out of New York due here at 9:50 tonight was thirty minutes late, and the train is usually on time it looked suspicious. It is intimated that a blockade intended to wreck the train was discovered by a track observer at Newburgh, and the train was delayed just in time to prevent a serious accident.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Terrible Freight Wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 8.—A terrible freight wreck occurred at the Broad Tree tunnel, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, early this morning. Two fast freight trains collided at the entrance to the tunnel, and both engines and cars were wrecked and overturned. The official report of the collision received by the Baltimore and Ohio people in Baltimore state that no one was killed. The injured are being cared for at the Broad Tree hospital.

KENTUCKY CONVENTION.

Inauguration of Its Session Yesterday at Frankfort.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 8.—The convention to revise and amend the constitution of Kentucky convened in this city today. It is composed of one hundred delegates, and embraces the most distinguished men in the State. The convention is the result of repeated attempts on the part of the people to take from the constitution several obnoxious features placed there by the pro-slavery constitution of 1850, and to make it conform to modern times.

FIRE IN HINTON, W. VA.

The Postoffice and Two Other Buildings Destroyed.

HINTON, W. Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—W. L. Frederick, jeweler, and J. H. Hoover, hardware, burned out Sunday. The buildings were insured and the stock partially saved. The postoffice is totally destroyed, but the most important papers were saved. By superhuman effort the fire was checked and two entire blocks were saved.

FATAL RAILROAD WRECK.

A Drunken Engineer Said to be the Cause of the Accident.

JOHNSON CITY, TENN., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—A fatal wreck occurred here yesterday morning between two freight trains on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad. One engine and several cars were wrecked, and one man (a cattle-drover named Easterly) was instantly killed. It is reported that a drunken engineer was the cause of the wreck.

THE M'KINLEY BILL.

A Jamaica Journal Threatens the United States with Retaliation.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A Halifax special to the World says that in discussing the McKinley tariff in connection with its effect on Jamaica, the Kingston Standard says: "The Americans persist in imposing a heavy duty on Jamaican goods, and in our view to retaliate by raising our duties on American products. The food stuffs we now get as cheaply as we can from Canada."

DUTCH TAKE HOLLAND.

AND MAINE, AS USUAL, STICKS TO HER RADICAL IDOLS.

General Apathy Throughout the State by Both Parties—Returns Somewhat Meagre, But Reed's Election Claimed by an Increased Plurality.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 8.—The election is passing off very quietly here. There is a good deal of scratching, and a smaller vote than usual is being polled.

THE MOZART MUSICAL.

The Schubert Male Quartette of Boston has been the attraction at the Mozart musical. The Schubert Male Quartette of Boston has been the attraction at the Mozart musical.

GERMAN-DAY CELEBRATION.

Arrangements to be Made for a Big Volks-Fest.

The first Germans who came to America landed on the 10th of October, 1683, at Germantown, Pa. For several years past efforts have been made to commemorate this event.

REPUBLICANS GAIN REVERIES.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 8.—Thirty towns give Burleigh 5,290; Thompson, 5,772; Clark, 204; scattering, 275. In 1888 Burleigh gave Burleigh 5,290; Thompson, 5,772; Clark, 204; scattering, 275.

STOCK WITH A HATCHET.

Mr. Richard Fox, of the firm of Fox & Rider, elevator merchants, No. 143 East Main street, was arrested yesterday, charged with striking Mr. J. M. Granger with a hatchet. Mr. Fox was arrested yesterday, charged with striking Mr. J. M. Granger with a hatchet.

THE THEATRE.

Mr. McNeill appears at the Theatre. Mr. McNeill appears at the Theatre.

TRAIN WRECKERS AT WORK.

More Obstructions Placed on the New York Central Track.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 8.—The six o'clock train out of New York due here at 9:50 tonight was thirty minutes late, and the train is usually on time it looked suspicious. It is intimated that a blockade intended to wreck the train was discovered by a track observer at Newburgh, and the train was delayed just in time to prevent a serious accident.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Terrible Freight Wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 8.—A terrible freight wreck occurred at the Broad Tree tunnel, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, early this morning. Two fast freight trains collided at the entrance to the tunnel, and both engines and cars were wrecked and overturned. The official report of the collision received by the Baltimore and Ohio people in Baltimore state that no one was killed. The injured are being cared for at the Broad Tree hospital.

KENTUCKY CONVENTION.

Inauguration of Its Session Yesterday at Frankfort.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 8.—The convention to revise and amend the constitution of Kentucky convened in this city today. It is composed of one hundred delegates, and embraces the most distinguished men in the State. The convention is the result of repeated attempts on the part of the people to take from the constitution several obnoxious features placed there by the pro-slavery constitution of 1850, and to make it conform to modern times.

FIRE IN HINTON, W. VA.

The Postoffice and Two Other Buildings Destroyed.

HINTON, W. Va., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—W. L. Frederick, jeweler, and J. H. Hoover, hardware, burned out Sunday. The buildings were insured and the stock partially saved. The postoffice is totally destroyed, but the most important papers were saved. By superhuman effort the fire was checked and two entire blocks were saved.

FATAL RAILROAD WRECK.

A Drunken Engineer Said to be the Cause of the Accident.

JOHNSON CITY, TENN., Sept. 8.—[Special.]—A fatal wreck occurred here yesterday morning between two freight trains on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad. One engine and several cars were wrecked, and one man (a cattle-drover named Easterly) was instantly killed. It is reported that a drunken engineer was the cause of the wreck.

THE M'KINLEY BILL.

A Jamaica Journal Threatens the United States with Retaliation.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A Halifax special to the World says that in discussing the McKinley tariff in connection with its effect on Jamaica, the Kingston Standard says: "The Americans persist in imposing a heavy duty on Jamaican goods, and in our view to retaliate by raising our duties on American products. The food stuffs we now get as cheaply as we can from Canada."